

How does riding an adaptive bike improve the lives of children?

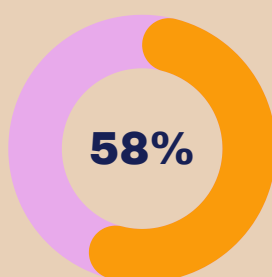

of children experience an increase in the level of energy of children experience better mood of children become more independent of children experience a positive change in comfort in social environments

Results from 2021 adaptive bike recipients online survey